

SYMPHONY KIDS

2015-16

St. Paul's Methodist Church
10:00 am

“The Little Red Hen”.....Oct. 31, 2015

The Little Red Hen and her Fluffy Yellow Chicks teach the Lazy Dog, the Sleepy Cat, and the Spunky Duck that friends help each other. From the music of Copland, children will discover that each character has a musical theme.

“The Four Musicians”.....Nov. 21, 2015

The donkey, the dog, the cat, and the rooster band together to travel to Bremen to become musicians. Through their adventures they learn about melody and harmony in the music of Bach. They discover that through music friends feel important and find happiness.

“The City Mouse and the Country Mouse”.....Jan. 9, 2016

The country mouse is excited to visit his friend in the city. Children will follow his trip on their own maps of musical styles. With the help of the music of Beethoven, Prokofiev, and Copland, he learns that adventures are good, but there's no place like home.

“The Boy Who Cried Wolf”.....Feb. 6, 2016

The little shepherd boy becomes bored with his job of watching the sheep, so he uses his skills with rhythm to repeatedly call the villagers to save his sheep from the vicious wolf. The music of Respighi teaches him that it is always best to tell the truth.

